

Current Certificate Requirements

1. Complete ASHP Essentials of Practice-Based Research for Pharmacists per assigned schedule
2. Participate in all Summer Seminar and Winter Seminar workshops and lectures
 - a. Two half-day seminars scheduled approximately in July/August and November/December and one video conference in January/February.
3. Participate in the Residency Research Forum (September)
4. Present current research at either local, state, regional, or national conference.
5. Provide feedback on peer reviewed research of a non-resident (i.e. faculty, preceptor, or student)
 - a. Platform presentation, poster presentation, submitted manuscript, or other
6. Submission of a manuscript suitable for publication describing the resident's research.
 - a. Manuscript must follow author guidelines from a peer-reviewed journal.
 - b. Manuscript must include a description of the background, project rationale and detailed description of methods, results including any relevant figures and/or tables, and conclusions.
 - c. Residents will be asked to select whether or not they intend to seek publication and intended journal.